September 2004

Dear Fellow Hoosier,

The right to vote is precious and our role as citizens in shaping the policies that govern our land is a solemn, if not sacred, duty. It is a privilege denied to billions of people around the world. Let us not take it for granted.

To help you better meet this responsibility, IFI is providing this publication – the 2004 Voter Guide. It is designed to give you the basic facts to cast an informed vote in the upcoming November 2, 2004 general election. The Guide is factual, impartial and non-partisan, in keeping with the Institute’s educational role.

The Guide represents countless hours of work to research, compile and confirm facts, all to help you get involved in the process of responsible citizenship. The most fundamental step in this process is to cast your vote in this crucial election. In addition, you can help the Institute offset the financial burdens of this project with a tax-deductible donation. A business reply envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

Please take the time to review the 2004 Voter Guide and be sure to cast your vote on Tuesday, November 2, 2004. Remember, you can always find the latest information at our web site – www.hoosierfamily.org.

Yours for Hoosier families,

Curt Smith
President

P.S. Help get the word out in your church, business, school or community group! Bulk copies of this 2004 Voter Guide are available by calling 1-800-269-2959 or (317) 423-9178.

Indiana Family Institute

It's designed to help you!

This 2004 Voter Guide is non-partisan. No funding from any candidate or political party helped pay for any part of this effort. Rather, fellow concerned Hoosiers dedicated to responsible citizenship have contributed the funds to send this publication to more than 60,000 Hoosier households. Nothing in this 2004 Voter Guide should be construed as an endorsement of any candidate or as an attempt to influence the outcome of an electoral contest.

What's inside?

Races included in this guide are U.S. Senate, U.S. House of Representatives, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State Senate and State House of Representatives. Members of the U.S. House, State Senate and State House are elected by unique legislative district. In order to utilize the 2004 Voter Guide, you must know your three distinct legislative district numbers.

Other information online!

Our web site, www.hoosierfamily.org, serves as a companion to the 2004 Voter Guide. At this web site you will find a printable, electronic version of the 2004 Voter Guide as well as links that will help you find the legislative districts in which you live. In addition, from our website you can link to www.ivotevalues.org, a helpful and informative website designed to answer many questions surrounding the upcoming election. You can also register to vote through this website.

Churches and other non-profit organizations can freely distribute these non-partisan 2004 Voter Guides without affecting their tax-exempt status! For more info or assistance in this area call us at (317) 423-9178 or 1-800-269-2959.

Other elections.

The Indiana Family Institute has not compiled information on other races including city, school board and judicial elections.

Governor

Lt. Governor

Attorney General

State Senate

State House of Representatives

U.S. Senate and House of Representatives Questions

- Terrorism - Removing the Iraqi dictator, Saddam Hussein, was a correct step to take in the war on terrorism.
- Terrorism - Those nation-states that aid and/or abet Al Qaeda or other terrorist organizations commit an act of war against the United States of America.
- Education - Parental choice should be expanded through tax credits or vouchers to allow children to attend any public, private, religious or home school.
- Health - Federal funds should be used for medical research involving human embryonic stem cells.
- Health - Physician-assisted suicide for terminally ill patients should be legalized.
- Health - Cloning of human embryos should be allowed.
- Health - Morning After Pills (emergency contraception) should be available to all women without a doctor's prescription.
- Health - "Domestic partners" (cohabiting homosexual or heterosexual couples) should have the same health care and employment benefits as married couples.
- Marriage - Congress should pass, and Indiana should ratify, an amendment to the U.S. Constitution stating that marriage is the union of one man and one woman.
- Judiciary - Congress should consider the selective removal of the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts when they fail to observe the separation of power.
- Judiciary - Federal judges should rely on the rulings of foreign courts when construing the laws of the United States.
- Abortion - Abortion should be prohibited by law, except when the life of the mother is in danger.
- Abortion - It should be a felony for anyone to take a minor across state lines to obtain an abortion in violation of a state's parental involvement law.
- Taxes - The burden of increased income taxes on married couples ("marriage penalty"), which occurs when a couple marries, should be permanently eliminated.
- Taxes - Federal tax cuts enacted since 2000 should be made permanent.
- Gay Rights - Discrimination law should protect an employee's sexual orientation in the same way as race, religion, age, sex and ancestry are protected.
- Gambling - Federal law should be changed to restrict gambling.
- Pornography - Existing laws prohibiting the sale and distribution of obscene materials should be aggressively enforced.

State of Indiana Candidate Questions

- Education – Parental choice should be expanded through tax credits or vouchers to allow children to attend any public, private, religious or home school.
- Education – Parents should be allowed to home-school their children without additional state regulation.
- Education – If sex education is taught in public schools, such instruction should be “abstinence-only”.
- Health – Cloning of human embryos should be allowed in Indiana.
- Health – Physician-assisted suicide for terminally ill patients should be legalized.
- Health – “Domestic partners” (i.e., cohabiting homosexual and heterosexual couples) should receive the same health care and employment benefits as married couples.
- Marriage – Indiana’s “no-fault” divorce laws should be revised to require couples to make a greater effort to preserve their marriage.
- Marriage – The Indiana Constitution should be amended to state that marriage is the union of one man and one woman.
- Gay Rights – Civil Rights law should be changed to protect an employee’s sexual orientation in the same way as race, religion, age, sex and ancestry are protected.
- Abortion – Abortion should be prohibited, except when the life of the mother is in danger.
- Abortion – Abortion clinics should be required to meet the same health and safety standards as other outpatient surgical centers in Indiana.
- Taxes – The state should increase taxes to provide additional funding for the state budget.
- Taxes - Indiana should take steps to phase out and/or replace our property tax system.
- Gambling – No taxpayer money should go towards subsidizing the gambling industry in Indiana
- Pornography – Existing laws prohibiting the sale and distribution of obscene materials should be aggressively enforced.
