September 2008

Dear Fellow Hoosier,

The right to vote is precious and our role as citizens in shaping the policies that govern our land is a solemn, if not sacred, privilege. This privilege is denied to billions of people around the world. Let us not take it for granted!

To help you meet this responsibility, IFI is providing this publication – the 2008 Voter Guide. It is designed to give you the basic facts to cast an informed vote in the upcoming November 4, 2008 general election. The Guide is factual, impartial and non-partisan, in keeping with the Institute’s educational role.

The Guide represents countless hours of research, mailings and phone calls, all to help you get involved in the process of responsible citizenship. The most fundamental step in this process is to cast your vote in this crucial election.

Please take the time to review the 2008 Voter Guide and be sure to cast your vote on Tuesday, November 4, 2008. Remember, you can always find the latest information at our web site – www.hoosierfamily.org.

Yours for Hoosier families,

Curt Smith

Curt Smith
President

It's designed to help you!

This 2008 Voter Guide is non-partisan. No funding from any candidate or political party helped pay for any part of this effort. Rather, fellow concerned Hoosiers dedicated to responsible citizenship have contributed the funds to send this publication to tens of thousands of Hoosiers. Nothing in this 2008 Voter Guide should be construed as an endorsement of any candidate or as an attempt to influence the outcome of an electoral contest.

What's inside?

Races included in this guide are U.S. House of Representatives, Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, State Senate and State House of Representatives. Members of the U.S. House, State Senate and State House are elected by legislative district. Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General and Superintendent of Public Instruction are on all Indiana ballots. Due to ongoing court cases regarding whether judges can respond to questionnaires and lack of response during the last election cycle, we did not mail questionnaires to judges. We did not survey candidates for President given the plethora of information already available on that race. Contact your county courthouse to find out which judges and other elected offices not included in this Voter Guide will be on your ballot on Election Day and how to get in touch with them.

Other information online!

Our web site, www.hoosierfamily.org, serves as a companion to the 2008 Voter Guide. At this web site you will find a printable, electronic version of the 2008 Voter Guide as well as links that will help you find the districts in which you live. In addition, from our website you can link to www.ivotevalues.org, a helpful and informative website designed to answer many questions surrounding the upcoming election.

Other elections.

The Indiana Family Institute has not compiled information on other races including presidential, judicial, city and school board elections.
